By LEE LINDER

Philadelphia, Sept. 2 (AP)—The American Legion's new national commander—40-year-old George N. Graig of Brazil, Ind.—stood pledged today to make that organization "an important voice in the nation's political and social life."

The Hoosier lawyer—the first World War Two veteran ever named to head the Legion—was chosen yesterday in a nip-and-tuck race with three other candidates. The job pays $15,000 annually and carries with it a $35,000 expense allowance.

Philadelphia, its streets washed clean of Legion literature, resumed quiet normalcy today after four days of serious discussion, speechmaking, politicking and parading that marked the Legion's 31st National convention.

The funmakers are gone. No longer does the noise of firecrackers and miniature cannon echo on downtown streets.

No longer do legionnaires frighten women by dangling rubber lizards and mice in their faces.

The convention's over — 1950 is next. And in November the Legion's National executive committee will decide where the 32nd conclave will be. Los Angeles, Boston and New York are bidding for the site.

Craig rolled into office on Thursday morning given him by a half dozen of the legion's biggest state departments—Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Texas, Indiana and New York.

The new leader, serenaded by a Hoosier band as he strode to the rostrum, accepted the responsibility of "making the Legion an important voice in the nation's political and social life."

"My generation has already carried the responsibility of national security in time of war," Craig said, "and now we join, in unity of purpose, our older comrades x x x in promoting and safeguarding those principles nec-

Ford Contract Dicker Delayed

Union Won't Tarry Much On Showdown

Detroit, Sept. 2 (AP)—A showdown in the Ford contract dispute has been put off until next week.

The CIO United Auto Workers and the Ford Motor Co. agreed yesterday to mark time on minor phases of the contract until Wednesday.

But after that they must inevitably reach the issues at the heart of their dispute—$100-a-month pensions, health and welfare benefits and an hourly wage boost.

Before agreeing to a day on the main issues, UAW President Walter P. Reuther made it plain the union will not tarry much longer at the conference table.

He threatened to give Ford five-day notice for contract termination—a step that could immediately precede a strike call for 115,000 Ford workers across the nation. All legal obstacles in the way of a walkout have been cleared away.

Since July 15, when the present Ford-UAW contract expired officially, the union and company have kept it extended on a day-to-day basis by mutual agreement. Either side must give five-day notice to change that arrangement.

Wyoming Finds May Date Back To 12,000 B. C.

Traces Of Primitive Yuma Unearthed

By ART EVERETT

New York, Sept. 2 (AP)—Extensive remains of a primitive group of hunters, who roamed the American West thousands of years before Christ's birth, have been unearthed near Cody, Wyo., it was disclosed here today.

Dr. Loren Eiseley of the University of Pennsylvania said the Wyoming camp site probably dates back to between 5,000 and 12,000 years before Christ.

He called the find one of the most important ever made in connection with the culture of the Yuma, the Nomadic group who disappeared centuries ago as a cultural unit. They were among the earliest known inhabitants of the new world.

Dr. Eiseley estimated that the ancient camp site covered about 600 square feet of a Terrace overlooking Sage Creek, Five miles Northeast of Cody.

Preserved In Sand

The valuable deposit of tools, weapons and food remains were preserved through the Centuries by dusty desert sands, now covering the Camp site to a depth of about 10 inches.

The Yuma were foot hunters who roved the high plains of the American West in search of Bison. Evidence of their existence have been found before, Dr. Eiseley said, but never so extensively or in a deposit that may enable scientists to fix more accurately the period in which they lived.

For example, he said, from the Bison bones on the site it may be possible to determine whether the Yuma lived before certain types of Bison became extinct late in the ice age.

No human bones were found, Dr. Eiseley said. There were numerous "Yuma points," delicately fashioned flints, that apparently tipped Yuma lances. It is believed the Yuma did not use Bow and Arrow.

There is no evidence that they tamed animals, even dogs. The bones found apparently were the remains of centuries-old meals. Campfire sites were littered with bones, some of them charred.

"I'll be down on Dec. 4 for a chicken dinner," said the big fellow as he climbed the pole.

Before the weight-losing jag began, Percy's measurements made him a classic "Mr. Five-by-Five." He was 60 inches in the waist and he's exactly five feet tall.

Formerly he was a racing car driver and weighed 130 pounds. On a normal day, the big fellow has been accustomed to polishing off a dozen eggs for breakfast.

Negro Describes Michigan Murder Mystery Of 1945

By BEN PRICE

Atlanta, Sept. 2 (AP)—An emotional Negro today told a story of murder in Michigan which puzzled the police of two states. Almost casually, 36-year-old Johnny Starks Vanderbilt said he witnessed the killing in 1945 of the once beautiful Russian, Mrs. Lydia Thompson.

Vanderbilt said he drove the death car.

Yet neither two Michigan State Police lieutenants nor agents of the Georgia Bureau of Investigation were convinced that Vanderbilt was telling the truth.

Michigan Lt. Howard Seiler observed after intense questioning of Vanderbilt, that he was a "psychopathic liar who can tell the truth only by coincidence."

But back of all the skepticism was a lingering doubt that perhaps Vanderbilt did know something about the Russian woman's death.

Her murder on Oct. 11 nearly four years ago was a brutal, coldblooded affair. Mrs. Thompson's body was found by mushroom hunters in a swampy area about 15 miles west of Pontiac, Mich., her head was nearly severed and four deep wounds were in the breast, chest and abdomen.

What puzzled police then—and now—was the presence of 13 stab wounds of equal depth in her body.

Toothache Launches 3-Weeks Trip; Dentist 1,600 Miles Away

Edmonton, Alta, Sept. 2 (AP)—A toothache can become a pain in the neck when you're 1,600 miles from the nearest dentist.

For Mrs. Adolphus Norris of Aklavik, N. W. T., it meant a three-week trip up the Mackenzie river to Edmonton by tug boat.

When she suffered a severe toothache, her husband packed her and their two daughters aboard the tug which he uses in his trading business, and set out for Edmonton, 1,600 miles south.

After a 1,100-mile water trip and a 500-mile jaunt by bus, the Norrises arrived in an Edmonton dentist's office. Just for good measure they are all getting their teeth fixed.

Norris hopes to make the return trip in 10 days.

Civil War Veteran, 100, Entertains Kiwanians

Battle Creek (AP)—Theodore A. Penland, 100-year-old Civil War veteran and commander-in-chief of the grand Army of the Republic, kept a local Kiwanis meeting well entertained Thursday. Visiting the Battle Creek school superintendent Eldon Geyer, Penland made a five-minute speech, sang a jazzed-up version of "Grandfather's clock," and then told about the time he saw Abraham Lincoln.

Nationalistic China Asks World To Help Battle Communism

(By The Associated Press)

In a statement commemorating the fourth anniversary of victory over Japan, acting President Li Tsung-Jen of Nationalist China appealed today to "all peace-loving peoples of the world" to join in a fight against international Communism.

Chinese Communist forces were surging into Kwangtung province in which Canton, the Nationalist provisional capital, is located.

Li said: "Unless our freedom is protected, our sacrifices during World War II will have been made in vain. The brutal force employed by the Communists and their totalitarian ideas far surpass those of the Fascists, and their threat to the cultural and spiritual achievements of mankind is even more dangerous than was that of Hitler, Mussolini and the former Japanese militarists."

Attack On Tito Not Anticipated

Moscow Threats Fail To Worry Diplomats

Bucharest, Romania, Sept. 2 (AP)—Western diplomats in Bucharest do not believe the communist countries will go to war against Marshall Tito of Yugoslavia.

They are not unduly concerned with reports published abroad that troops are being concentrated against Yugoslavia.

Bucharest is headquarters of the Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau) and therefore an extremely sensitive listening post.

A Romanian spokesman declared yesterday that reports of troop concentrations were "unfounded and an act of provocation."

As far as the underground opposition here and in other communist countries is concerned, however, the Tito-Cominform split has come as a bonanza.

These countries have not settled down under their communist regimes as is proved by local government appeals for renewed class vigilance.

In New York the United Nations daily predicted that 20 to 25 key-Communists in Cominform countries would soon desert Moscow and swing over to Tito.

The magazine, a privately printed publication, said Tito is preparing to launch a new worldwide Communist organization to compete with the Cominform.

Chicago Salesman Held For Hitting Twins On Bicycle

St. Joseph, Mich., Sept. 2 (AP)—A Chicago salesman was charged today with running down twin boys who were bicycling yesterday on M-60 three miles west of Three Oaks.

One of the twins, Jerome Becker, 11, was killed instantly when the car struck him, according to state police trooper Edward Hayes. The other, Julian, was taken to St. Anthony's hospital in Michigan City, Ind., with serious injuries.

The salesman, Oasie R. Herbert, 53, of Chicago, was scheduled for arraignment in justice court today on a manslaughter charge.

LUCAS LEAVES $65,000

Flint (AP)—The late C. W. Lucas, former aide of Gov. Murray D. Van Wagoner, left an estate of $65,000 to his wife, probate court records revealed. It included $15,000 in real and $50,000 in personal property.

Gift Parcel Racket Nipped In Germany

Frankfurt, Germany, Sept. 2 (AP)—The licenses of 30 firms from eight countries which had distributed gift parcels in Germany have been revoked, the American Military Government reports.

The licenses were withdrawn in connection with the investigation of the so-called "illegal parcel racket" by United States customs authorities in Germany. Some others were cancelled previously.

A group of 17 German and Greek nationalists in Bremen were arrested recently. At the same time, the license of a Danish firm was withdrawn.

A U. S. Military Government release last night identified the firm as the Peter Gay shippers. "Preliminary investigation,"

Six-Point Plan Laid Out To Save Britain From Financial Ruin

By JOHN SCALI

Washington, Sept. 2 (AP)—A tentative six-point plan for helping Britain out of its financial crisis is expected today from final discussions of American, British and Canadian fact-finding officials.

Representatives of the three governments have been meeting twice daily for the past week to explore the problem. They hope to complete an agenda today that will permit their foreign ministers next week to discuss these points:

1. Reducing further British purchases from the United States and increasing buying in non-dollar areas wherever possible.

2. Streamlining American customs rules to encourage more British exports to send their goods to the United States.

3. Easing provisions of the 1946 British loan agreement to permit Britain to slow up purchases of American goods in favor of those from non-dollar countries.

4. Boosting American purchases of British commonwealth tin and rubber. The United States has been buying limited quantities to stockpile for an emergency.

5. Increasing American economic help to southeast Asian members of the British commonwealth to ease their demands on Britain's scarce dollar supply. The countries involved are reported to be India, Pakistan, and Malaya, along with Burma which is no longer in the commonwealth.

6. Calling a new tariff cutting conference soon to end yesterday's duties on British exports to the United States.

The steps are intended as stop-gap measures to ease the drain on Britain's dwindling reserves. But officials agree they will not by themselves solve Britain's long-range problem: its inability to earn enough dollars to pay for what it buys from the United States and Canada.

The basic solution to this is believed to be an intensive drive by the labor government to reduce British production costs and thus make it easier for British products to compete in the world market.

Snarling Killer Shot In Florida

Guns End Manhunt In Tampa Orange Grove

Tampa, Fla., Sept. 2 (AP)—Florida's biggest manhunt in years was brought to an end yesterday when a snarling, knife-wielding fugitive was cut down by a blast of shotgun and pistol fire in an orange grove.

With 21 wounds in his body, 34-year-old John Calvin Russell gasped to officers, "You fellows have killed me—I'm glad you did."

Two sheriff's deputies, Bob Spooner and Harvard Frazier, trapped the elusive fugitive from a murder charge and called out to him to surrender.

In reply, the dark-haired athletic Russell defiantly charged the deputies in a wild, knife-swinging dash.

Spooner fired three rounds from a sawed-off shotgun and Harvard shot four times with his .38 caliber revolver. The blasts caught Russell at full force and he crumpled to the ground. He died a few minutes later.

He was grimy and unshaven, and wore the dirty clothes in which he escaped Sunday night from the Pinellas county jail at Clearwater.

For four days he eluded hundreds of regular and special officers. He was under indictment for the torture slaying of 70-year-old Norman Brown who was found Aug. 7 slashed and stabbed and tied up in his bed in his home at Clearwater.

Brown's wife, also 70, was being tortured when neighbors came upon the scene.

The neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Crum, were also assaulted by the intruder. Crum was shot in the stomach and his wife was beaten with a shotgun. The Crums' eight-month-old daughter, in her mother's arms, was injured internally during the assault.

Detroit Holdup Doctor Caught

Fake Physician Held After Wild Chase

Detroit, Sept. 2 (AP)—A man who called himself a doctor was held on a robbery charge here today following his capture in a wild police chase from a holdup scene.

Police said the man gave his name as Dr. Earl Eugene Ward, 36.

Inspector Walter Wyrod of the holdup squad said Ward admitted the title of doctor was just a pose because he liked to impress people socially. The doctor said Ward gave his real occupation as a meat-cutter.

Police said they captured Ward yesterday after he held up a real estate office and kidnapped a salesman in a $27 robbery. Police caught Ward after an 80-mile-an-hour automobile chase.

Officers said Ward forced Edward B. Kayden at gun point to drive him away from the real estate office. Police cars took up the chase. One was wrecked when it smashed into a truck. Another police car, however, kept on Ward's trail. Police finally captured him after firing two shots.

Inspector Wyrod said Ward claimed he mingled socially with doctors and posed as a doctor himself by using medical terms he picked up while an inmate of a Pennsylvania mental hospital.

Rudy Vallee Ready To Wed Fourth Time In Catholic Church

Oakland, Calif., Sept. 2 (AP)—Rudy Vallee has the preliminaries out of the way for his fourth marriage—this time to a 21-year-old University of California psychology graduate.

The 48-year-old orchestra leader and Eleanor Kathleen Norr's of Berkeley, Calif., slipped quietly into the marriage bureau here yesterday for their license. They will be married Saturday night in Corpus Christi Catholic church here. Friends said the church would recognize the marriage because:

Vallee's first marriage to Leona Gauches was annulled. His second wife, Fay Webb, died after their divorce. His marriage to actress Jane Greer—they were divorced in 1944—was outside the Catholic church.

Senate Inquiry In Washington Takes Breather

Race Track Operator Next In Spotlight

By OLIVER W. DeWOLF

Washington, Sept. 2 (AP)—The government started squeezing closed the doors on five percenters today as probing senators paused to take stock in their month-long search for improper influence in federal contracting.

Chairman Hoey (D-N. C.) of the senate investigating subcommittee recessed the inquiry yesterday for at least a month while the staff studies the evidence taken thus far.

The government's chief purchasing officer, Jess Larson, assured the senators before the hearings closed that the middleman in government contracting is on the way out.

Blacklists Promised

Larson, who heads the new government services administration, testified that he, Secretary of Defense Johnson and Budget Director Frank Pace had worked out a plan to make direct contracting easier for small businessmen.

Unethical firms will be black-listed and federal employees warned about taking favors, he said, adding:

"It is my honest opinion that this procedure, together with the policy of decentralizing procurement and the maintaining of adequate, courteous and efficient information centers will cause the so-called five per-center to wane and die because there will be no need for his services."

The term five per-center has been used to describe those who kick out government contracts for others for a fee—usually five percent. That activity isn't illegal, but the senate group has been searching for signs that it involved "influence peddling."

No sooner had the committee suspended hearing for the present than some members began to look toward the time when the inquiry resumes.

Campaign Funds Collected

When that time comes, William Helis, oil operator and racing figure, probably will take over the spotlight which centered during the first phase of the investigation on President Truman's military aide, Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan. Senators Mundt (R-S. D.), McCarthy (R-Wis.) and Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me.) all have demanded a chance to question Helis. His name came up in the hearings repeatedly—usually link-

Bus Repairs Quit; Detroit Faces Tieup

Detroit, Sept. 2 (AP)—A walkout of 2,000 repairmen today threatened to tie up all city buses in Detroit.

City officials said they were prepared to take strong measures against the Detroit street railways maintenance workers.

"The DSR will shut up shop if the maintenance men do not return to work," said Leo Nowicki, manager of the DSR. "No emergency measures will be taken to keep street cars and buses running."

The walkout began last night when workers objected to the hiring of new employees to fill higher paying jobs. It spread to all DSR garages today.

Council Okehs Street Closing

Royce Park Program Gets Approval

The Escanaba city council Thursday night, by a unanimous vote, authorized the closing of South 18th street, between Sixth and Seventh avenues south, to permit the expansion and development of the Royce Park playground.

The recreation department had requested the closing of the street, but said the street would not be closed until funds are available for the Royce Park development program. A similar development program is planned for the Webster park playground and the Webster development has been given top priority.

Werner A. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barbeau and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Richards, all of whom reside in the Royce Park neighborhood, protested the closing.

12 Sign Petition

A counter-petition, with 124 signatories, favoring the closing of the street was presented to the council and Cliff Frasier and Dale Vinette spoke in support of the proposal to vacate the street.

Permission to close the street was sought at this time so that the recreation board could adequately plan for the development of Royce Park.

The council also authorized the purchase of property near the water tank location for recreational development, provided the property can be secured at a price not to exceed $7,000. The property is owned by Mrs. S. M. Matthews, who requested $7,500 for the site, involving 27 lots.

Trailer Ordinance

After adopting several amendments to the proposed trailer ordinance, the council approved the ordinance for second reading. The ordinance regulates the use of trailers within the city limits, provides for privately operated trailer parks. It permits six months tenancy of trailers in trailer parks, subject to extension by the board of appeals, and limits tenancy of trailers outside of trailer parks to a period of 60 days.

An exception was granted to persons now occupying trailers within the city, however. They are granted two years time, in which to find other quarters, subject to extension by the board of appeals. Further, the council directed the board of appeals to adopt a liberal policy regarding petitions for extensions for persons now occupying trailers in the city.

Other Business

Other actions taken by the council include the following:

Authorized the purchase of a two cubic-yard scraper from the Bribner Machine Co., Marquette, for $1,100.

Authorized the purchase of a leaf loader from the Champion Co., Iron Mountain, for $3,902.77.

Extended the deadline for the payment of city taxes without penalty from Sept. 15 to October 15.

Adopted for first reading a radio interference ordinance which slightly modified an existing ordinance.

Approved exchange of city owned property for property owned by Jules DeGrand.

Authorized transfer of Class B hotel license from Mrs. Olive Bartley to Edmund Boucher.

Authorized purchase of fence for tennis courts at Senior high school for $1,309.10 from Vinnette Iron Company.

Accepted petition protesting smoke nuisance on South 16th street. No action taken in view of information that the dairy said to be cause of smoke nuisance.

Accepted petition for paving 26 feet street a distance of 600 feet in the Goulet's Addition.

Postponed action on request for rental of a stone crusher.

No objections were presented for assessments for several water main extensions and a series of street paving jobs in the city.

Mrs. Waterman Buys Women's Shop Here

Mrs. Maude E. Waterman, who for the past 14 months has been affiliated with ready-to-wear dress shops in Escanaba, has purchased Lee Hendricks' interest in the Smartwear Shop at 902 Ludington street, and is now sole owner.

Mrs. Waterman came to Escanaba in July, 1948, from Indianapolis where she had also been active in ready-to-wear clothing retail stores. Previously she was a buyer for a Southern Michigan jewelry store for 12 years.

Before the Christmas holidays, remodeling in the shop will be effected, Mrs. Waterman said today. The store handles all lines of women's apparel, in the moderately priced bracket.

The Smartwear shop was purchased jointly by Mrs. Waterman and Lee Hendricks in April of this year, from the late Mable Gamache.

French Rover Boys Dunked

Mississippi River Lashed By Storm

Prairie du Chien, Wis.—The Father of Waters was flowing smoothly toward the sea when white men—Father Jacques Marquette and Louis Joliet, the French explorers—guided their birchbark canoes out of the mouth of the Wisconsin river for their first glimpse of the upper reaches of the Mississippi.

That was 276 years ago, however, and four young Frenchmen who have spent the summer attempting to duplicate the famed Marquette and Joliet voyage of exploration got so much rougher a reception from the Mississippi late yesterday that a civic welcome here had to be postponed until today.

The modern voyagers ran into a squall which whipped up 4-foot waves, upset one of their two canoes, scattered a welcoming flotilla of power boats and swept one of the newcomers from the deck of a launch to a nip and tuck brush with death.

He is R. W. Ingle, 45, of La-Crosse, Wis., Gateway council area executive for the Boy Scouts of America, one of the sponsors of the trip. He was dragged from the river in a semi-conscious condition and given overnight treatment for shock at a hospital here.

The visiting French youths lost a trunk of clothes in the squall but salvaged vital equipment. They scrambled ashore and were rushed by automobile to a local home where they sat wrapped in blankets while their clothes dried and a crowd assembled at the water front to greet them dispersed.

The only thrill received by this crowd which included a majority of Prairie du Chien residents was a view of a clanging ambulance taking Ingle to a hospital.

Attired in damp raiment the visitors last night attended a banquet in their honor. Speaking through interpreters they described events of their trip which was begun May 25 at Trois Rivieres, near Quebec, on the St. Lawrence river. They dodged a storm on Lake Huron, they said, by landing on an uninhabited island and remaining there for two days.

They are Jean Raspall, 24; Yves Korbendau, 21; Philippe Andrieu, 24, and Jacques Nouchariat, 24. The conceived the trip in a desire to demonstrate that modern French youth are as adventurous as their countrymen of nearly 300 years ago. They are traveling in 16 foot canvas canoes.

Retracing the route of Father Marquette and Joliet, they covered 1,400 miles to reach the Mississippi by way of Green Bay, the Fox river and the portage from the Fox to the Wisconsin river at Portage, Wis.

The French Scouts visited Escanaba a couple weeks ago.

Tech Receives Paine Portrait

Painting Presented By Copper Range Co.

Houghton.—The Michigan College of Mining and Technology has recently received from Morris F. LaCroix of Boston, president of the Copper Range company, a large portrait in oils of F. Ward Paine. The portrait, a gift to the college from members of the Paine family, is designed to hang in the lounge of the Memorial Union Building, when that structure is completed.

The artist is Richmond K. Fletcher of Boston, internationally known portrait painter. Fletcher completed the painting in October of 1948. From that time until June of this year it hung in the offices of the Copper Range company in Boston. Late in June under the supervision of the artist, the portrait was crated and shipped to the college. It now hangs in the college library where it will remain until it is transferred to the Memorial Union Building.

Ralph R. Calder, Union Building architect, has designed the fireplace molding in the main lounge of the Union Building as a frame for the portrait. The color scheme of the lounge has also been designed to harmonize with the colors used in the painting.

F. Ward Paine was the son of William A. Paine, who organized the Copper Range company in 1893 and became its first president. The younger Paine graduated from Yale University in 1910 and received his M. A. degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1911. During the 1911-12 year he was professor of geology at the Michigan College of Mines. Later he was treasurer and vice-president of the Copper Range company and a member of the investment firm of Paine, Webber and Company. He died on August 22, 1940.

Three Sentenced To Jail For Game Law Violation

Three Fine Ridge men, Alfred Johns, 21, Gordon Bailey, 44, and Howard Dickerson, 27, were sentenced to serve 15 days in the county jail, following arraignment in Gladstone yesterday.

The men failed to pay fines assessed to them after they had entered a plea of guilty to a charge of violating game laws. They were re-arrested by conservation officers, and arraigned before Justice O. C. Estenson.

William J. Fretz Dies In Newberry

Publisher Of News Was 80 Years Old

Newberry, Mich.—William J. Fretz, 80, publisher of the Newberry News for more than a half century, died Thursday at the Little Traverse hospital in Petoskey. He entered the hospital Aug. 8 as a surgical patient.

Mr. Fretz was born in Madoe, Ont., June 14, 1869, and came to Newberry in 1887 at the age of 18. He went to work on the Newberry News and purchased the newspaper from Charles Brebner in 1900.

He served as village clerk three terms, McMillan township treasurer one term and as a member of the Newberry Water and Light Board for several years. He was a past president of the Lions club, and held important offices in the Blue Lodge, Chapter Shrine and Knights Templars, Masonic organizations. He also was affiliated with the Odd Fellows lodge.

Mr. Fretz was long active in the Republican party. He was married Feb. 20, 1895 to Ethelyn L. Boice of Ypsilanti, who died several years ago. He is survived by three children, Merle, Ruth and Roger.

Funeral services will be held at the Beaulieu funeral home at 2 Saturday afternoon with Rev. Kelsey officiating. Masonic rites will be conducted at the grave in Forest Home cemetery.

Fishing Fears Are Discounted

Story Exaggerated, Says Huron Man

Harold Lamb, of Rogers City, one of the Lake Huron commercial fishermen licensed to fish out of Escanaba, denied Thursday that there is any cause for worry that the walleye fishing grounds in local waters would be depleted by the Huron fishermen.

"There are only two Lake Huron boats fishing out of here," Lamb said, "and we are equipped only with a few small trap nets. My boat, the Osprey, has been fishing here two weeks and in that time we have taken only 800 pounds of fish, only a small percentage of the catches being walleyes. The other boat, the Leila Mae, owned by Steve Hosko, of Alpena, has been here three weeks and their catch has not been more than 1200 pounds."

"I have 15 trap nets on the Osprey and Hosko has 11 on the Leila Mae. They are shallow trap nets, most of them only 10 foot deep. They are rough fish nets. The third boat here, the Lou Carol, is not licensed to fish out of Escanaba and we are taking it to Marinette for repairs. The boat was built there. It is not in operating condition at the present time."

Lamb said that fears that the Huron fishermen would clean out the walleyes in local waters are ridiculous.

"The total number of our sets would occupy only a very small part of the local fishing waters," Lamb said. "Actually we have lost money since we have been here. It costs me $200 a week to operate my boat and in the first two weeks I have taken only $320 worth of fish."

The Lake Huron fishermen said that the danger to local fishing grounds does not come from the Huron boats, but rather from the extremely heavy fishing with pound nets by Wisconsin fishermen.

"One Wisconsin fisherman operating near Minneapolis Shoal with 80 foot pound nets is a far greater threat to the fishing grounds," Lamb declared.

"We are doing nothing illegal in our fishing operations here," the Huron fisherman said. "Capt. Albers (Department of Conservation officer whose patrol boat was in Escanaba Thursday) has watched our operations and he can confirm my story that we are operating entirely within the privileges granted to us by the State of Michigan."

Harrison Rites In Millville

Funeral services for Frank W. Harrison, 57, who died in Henry Ford hospital Wednesday night of a heart ailment, will be held at Memorial Funeral home, 24 West Second street, in Millville, N. J., his birthplace and burial will be made in the family plot in Millville cemetery.

Mrs. Harrison and Helen and Charles Harrison and son are accompanying the body east from Detroit.

Mr. Harrison was born May 24, 1892. Following his graduation from Montclair, N. J., high school, he attended the Carnegie Institute of Technology as an electrical engineering student.

He served in World War I as a First Lieutenant in the Quartermaster Corps, and after his discharge from the service was vice president of the Robbins Electrical Company of Pittsburgh and assistant superintendent of the Pittsburgh Department of Public Works. He had been with the Highland Park plant of the Ford Motor company since 1942.

He is open. Throughout the festival the Legion band will play at the festival grounds. A nursery for tiny tots will be operated by trained personnel.

NOTICE

A new ordinance regulating the collection of refuse has recently been enacted by the City Council. This ordinance goes into effect September 3, 1949, and provides that:

REFUSE SHALL BE SEPARATED as to burnable and non-burnable materials and garbage shall be wrapped:

ONLY APPROVED TYPES OF RECEPTACLES shall be used, and they shall be placed at either the curb or alley line.

COLLECTION ON PREMISES shall be charged for at a rate based upon the distance collectors have to walk to pick up refuse.

This ordinance was adopted because increasing costs of refuse collection have made it necessary to improve collection methods and establish a charge in cases where present payments are below collection expenses.

DETAILED INSTRUCTIONS WILL BE ISSUED.

After detailed instructions are issued, those who use the city refuse collection service will be given a reasonable length of time to comply with this ordinance.

Let Robeson Alone-Ruark

Negro Singer Asks For Persecution

By ROBERT C. RUARK

New York — It is just a wee touch ironic that Mr. Paul Robeson, the political lark, should demand a Department of Justice investigation of the riot at Peekskill, N. Y., which busted up a concert at which he was supposed to sing.

Mr. Robeson being of the Communist persuasion, and a disliker of his own land, one would imagine that he would regard the justice department with that malaise peculiar to all Communist followers which is to say that justice is a Fascist arm with no legal probity in its administration. It is very amusing, I think, how the cop-haters always holler for the law when they get in the crease.

It's also regrettable that the theohads who were provoked into attacking Mr. Robeson's song-fest, at which he did not appear, should have given his agitator some solid grounds for complaint, since a riot is always regrettable for a variety of reasons. One of the chief reasons is that any show of violence is the finest of grist for the Communists.

"Hit me with that club, you ever-loving Cossack," they say. "Stroke me bleeding blow with that knout, so that all the world may know how I suffer. Beat me, daddy, eight to the bar."

Mr. Robeson, with remarkable innuendo, is now portraying the crack-up of his concert as an "attack on the whole Negro people." This is how the system works—a flock of hotspurs tangle with an evil symbol and it suddenly is transformed into a mass attack on a whole people, good and bad, poor and rich.

It is a matter of fact that Mr. Robeson has been disclaimed officially by the top spokesman for the Negro in America, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Last April, when the singer was flapping his face in Europe, Walter White, the then secretary of the NAACP, put out a stout bulletin. It just said simply that Mr. Robeson had never been selected or appointed as spokesman for Negro America, and that he was screaming on his own time.

The NAACP yesterday deplored the rioting in Peekskill, and sent out assorted telegrams to Gov. Tom Dewey and other key New York states, but in the same tone of any other civic society that frowns on mob scenes. Nowhere, however, is there a broad endorsement of Robeson as a qualified representative of his race.

Actually the big ex-all American and Phi Beta Kappa has become an embarrassment to his people, a freak among his fellows. Young Jackie Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers was more or less forced to tick him off sharply a few weeks back, because Robeson has wishfully injected himself into the ideological scene as typical American Negro, and that he ain't. He is a sophisticated disciple of the Kremlin, treasonous in his talk of the land that bred him. He is a rabble rouser leaning on an old reputation and an old vogue among the too-too set of esoteric New York.

Any time your Robesons or your Henry Wallaces go out among the people to preach their own peculiar gospel, they are eager and willing to accept the tilted autos and hurled fruit which sometimes greet them in sectors which are less tolerant than just plain annoyed at the past. I was with Wallace on the egg-throwing tour of the South last year, and his every move was an insult to local tradition; his every action was hopefully geared to inspire riot and violence. When shrewd handling by local authorities often frustrated his opportunity to foment trouble, he folded his caravan and snuck out.

Somebody ought to tell these lusty youths who slugged it out with the Robeson followers that they do a great disservice to the country and a great favor for the creed of Paul Robeson when they give him fuel for a legitimate beef when they supply him with the kind of material which has ever been employed gainfully by the hate-peddlers.

A man like Robeson, who has been officially cast out by the prime spokesman for his people, acquires no importance either for himself or his cause unless people dignify his existence by a disgraceful show of mob resentment. Let the guy alone and he withers on the vine.

Soo Junior High To Get Exchange Teacher From English School

Miss Elsie Mabel Orland, a teacher from S. Stephen's school, Springfield, Wolverhampton, England, is enroute to Sault Ste. Marie to begin a one-year assignment at the junior high school under the Teacher Interchange Program sponsored by the National Committee on Interchange of Teachers and the Office of Education, Federal Security Agency. Miss Orland is exchanging positions with Mrs. Eva C. Burdick, who is already in Great Britain.

Announcement of the exchange program in this area was made today by Mr. J. Kimball Johnson, Regional Director of the Federal Security Agency with headquarters in Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Johnson, whose office serves Michigan, Ohio and Kentucky on Federal Security Agency programs, said that in addition to Miss Orland, five teachers are enroute to Michigan for one-year assignments.

Altogether, 97 teachers arrived in the United States from England, North Ireland, Scotland, and Wales, August 18, under the teacher exchange program. They were greeted in New York City by representatives of the Office of Education, Department of State, and other organizations.

Hope To Forestall Big Ford Strike

THE Detroit Board of Commerce, recognizing the serious effect a strike of Ford workers would have on the economic stability of this country, this week published full page advertisements in Detroit newspapers, appealing for industrial peace.

Whether the advertisements will be a factor in heading off the threatened strike still remains to be determined. The workers have already voted overwhelmingly in support of a strike to enforce their wage demands. The final determination will be made by the UAW officials when and if present negotiations for a new contract break down.

Agreement reportedly has been reached on such non-economic factors as seniority rights and grievance procedures. The real issues, however, involve a fourth round wage boost, pensions, health benefits, etc. Ford company has insisted that it will not yield to demands that would cause an increase in the cost of Ford products. This means, of course, that if any wage increase is granted, such an increase must necessarily be a small one. The Ford company has offered only to continue in effect the present high wage rates.

Everyone hopes that the Ford dispute can be settled without a strike — for the benefit of the Ford workers, the Ford company and for the economic health of the country as a whole.

This Story Has An Upper Peninsula Background

SPITZBERGEN, less than 700 miles from the North Pole, is being called the big blue chip in the world power game for military bases.

This group of three large and several small islands is situated midway between Greenland and Nova Zembla, north of Sweden and Russia in the Arctic ocean. The land is mountainous, with many sharp peaks containing granite, marble and coal, indicating that millions of years ago they were in a tropic zone.

The islands were discovered in 1553 and named Spitzbergen—"sharp peaks"—by the Dutch Captain Barentz. Parts of the coast lands have been explored, but the interior highland is covered with wild glaciers. The metropolis is Longyearbyen, population about 1,000, and named for John M. Longyear, Upper Peninsula industrialist. After Mr. Longyear moved to the Boston area, he started big-scale coal mining at Advent Bay in 1904, and sold out in 1916 to the present Norwegian owners.

The coal companies print their own money and their managers are kings on a small scale, having the final say in any matters of importance. Just about everybody works for the coal mines. The game and conservation laws are stringent. Bears, reindeer and foxes are found, as well as great numbers of whales, seals and sea-fowl along the shores.

Mine employees are well paid, and their earnings may go as high as $4,000 yearly. They pay only $22 a month for lodging and social insurance, the income taxes are a flat four per cent, and there are no customs. The Spitzbergen worker pays 14 cents a pack for cigarettes and $1.20 for a bottle of whisky. Disease is so rare as to be almost non-existent and there are no rats, mosquitoes or reptiles that far North. There is some "Lapp disease," a spleen condition induced by eight months of complete or almost complete darkness, which is offset to some extent by four months of continuous sunshine.

So Longyearbyen is a far northern reminder of the richest man who ever lived in the Upper Peninsula, if Henry Ford and his Hurd Mountain summer home are excepted, who made his fortune in iron ore, and increased it in later years in the far and frozen North.

Strategically located at the top of the world, we may hear more from Spitzbergen some day. It could be an ideal site for Russia to take over while bombing us across the Pole.

British Ask New Help From America

BRITISH officials are enroute to Washington to seek additional American help in the financial crisis that has overtaken Britain. They are coming with advance assurances from President Truman that this country will help Britain grapple with her financial and economic problems.

If the British officials actually anticipate another American loan, they have not yet tipped their hand. Furthermore, they probably realize that it would be almost impossible to get congressional approval for a new British loan. The American government has been exceptionally generous to the British in the postwar years, but the generosity has not succeeded in solving the financial problem of England.

It is expected that Britain will seek lower tariff barriers in this country for British products and also guarantee an American market for British raw materials, such as rubber and tin. To these requests, it is likely the American conferees will listen sympathetically. Britain, in turn, will promise a sincere effort to increase factory production and to cut government spending.

This latter point is sure to provide a conflict in the negotiations. A large part of the cost of operating the British government is the burden of social experimentation. Americans hesitate to put themselves in the unpleasant position of dictating to the British on how to run their affairs, but there is no disposition in this country to finance a social scheme in Britain that is distasteful, to say the least, to American principles.

Whether socialization of industry is good or bad at any time may be a debatable subject, but in the case of Britain it is obvious that socialization has contributed in no small degree to the economic problem in that country.

Always The Silly Season For Reds

THE Communists and a good many other groups in the United States still hang onto the childish notion that they can accomplish some of their objectives by deluging people in authority with letters and telegrams.

If these rather juvenile propagandists would ever step inside the average congressman's office, they'd learn that their pressure mail gets about as much attention as a department store circular.

Recently the device was tried on Federal Judge Harold Medina as he was weighing the question whether to declare a mistrial in the conspiracy case of 11 Communist leaders. He was swamped with letters and wires advising him to say "mistrial."

Can you imagine how long the American judiciary would have any meaning as an impartial arbiter of law and fact if it yielded even once to such pressures?

Comrades, how silly can you get?

Other Editorial Comments

TREE TRUNKS

A tree trunk is one of nature's most highly-developed organisms. Only a few trees have truly smooth bark, stretching the outside covering as the year's annual ring of new growth takes place in early summer. The oaks and maples, ash and elm, cedars and hemlock have a rough, furrowed covering caused by the expansion of the bole. The sycamore has so little elasticity that big patches of outside bark break off and show the well-known pattern of white, inner bark.

Contrary to popular opinion, roots do not draw liquid food from the soil. They carry water with dissolved chemicals through a system of tubes to the leaves. Here the sunlight works on the chlorophyll and manufactures a soft, jelly-like carbohydrate that goes down the trunk in special food lines to nurture each living cell. Even the tiny white hairs at the end of long roots must be fed from the food made high above. A tree, as with all life organisms, grows by dividing its cells; but in a large tree only a very small per cent of the material is living cells. Each year a new circular ring of cells is made; hence man can tell its age when he cuts a tree. The width of the cell ring can tell up what sort of a growing season it was generations ago.

Trees evaporate tremendous quantities of water lifted through the trunks and given off through the leaves. An acre of apple orchard evaporates many tons of water a day at the height of the growing season. Strangely enough during the cold of winter when evaporation is almost nil, the amount of water in a tree trunk increases. A tree trunk is constructed horizontally; that is why once you prune your young apple, peach or pear tree, the trunk does not continue growing up in the air. The cells in the trunk grow and increase; but they expand sideways. As new rings of cells are made each year, the wood inside becomes inert material. Now in the ninth month the trunks have ended their seasonal expansion; loose bark makes an intricate pattern on the poles. Soon the twigs will manufacture a plate of cells at the end of leaf stems and leaves will begin to fall. The next time you walk along the road or in the woods, or when you are raking the leaves in the yard, stop a minute and study the trunks of the trees. In their sturdy strength is a part of the wonder of nature's intricate plan.—By Haydn Pearson.

A pedestrian apologized after being knocked down by a motorist. And science spends millions searching for freaks of nature.

Arms to France Key to Security

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington. — So many words already have been spilled in argument over the arms aid program and so many more will flow in the course of the senate debate that the major objective is likely to be lost sight of. It is the familiar business of the forest and the trees.

This is an effort to put the program in the perspective of those who have drafted it and worked for its acceptance. It is based on talks with both civilians and military men responsible for inception of arms aid for Europe and for carrying out the program if and when it is finally approved by congress.

ARMS FOR FRENCH ARMY

The primary goal insofar as the Atlantic pact nations are concerned is to re-arm the nine divisions that France has in being. Most of the $1,160,000,000 for the Atlantic nations would go for that purpose.

Those divisions are today inadequately armed with obsolete weapons. They are being trained under new and rigorous methods that represent a radical departure from French military tradition. Foreign military observers have been impressed with this training.

But no matter how thorough the training, these troops could not fight in a modern war without modern weapons. This is considered basic since the French divisions would be the core of the initial holding operation should the Russians decide on war. As military men point out, there is little reason to debate their will to fight so long as they do not have the equipment to fight with.

WOULD CONSOLE BRITAIN

To strengthen the French divisions would greatly increase the confidence of the British. Fearing another Dunkirk, Britain has been reluctant to make a commitment to send any substantial forces to the continent. The British commitment is at present a small one.

What few seem to realize, judging from many of the statements that are made, is the continuing fantastic imbalance between the military strength of Eastern Europe and Western Europe. The Soviet Union today has an estimated 170 divisions under arms. While they are not all at full strength, this is approximately 4,000,000 men.

This huge force with its modern armaments is distributed around the perimeter of Russia with by far the greatest concentration in the West. Russia's satellites have an estimated 50 divisions. These vary greatly in their potentiality ranging down to the untrustworthy and the worthless.

YUGOSLAVIA SURROUNDED

But it doesn't take a military genius to see that use to which these divisions could be put in connection with Stalin's efforts to overthrow the Tito regime in Yugoslavia. If Russia became involved with the West, or feared imminent involvement, the satellite divisions could at least be employed to contain Tito's military forces. Such a plan for containment is believed to have been the subject of the well-advised meeting of Cominform political and military bosses in Bulgaria last week.

In addition to arms aid spent to equip the French divisions, a smaller amount would go to start French armament production. The idea is to enable France to manufacture ammunition and spare parts for equipment furnished from the United States. Eventually, the French would be self-sustaining.

A small part of the fund would go for warning equipment in Northern Europe and for other more or less token beginnings of defensive armaments. But the creation of a bulwark in Western Europe is the essential target. Firmly and resolutely, Gen. Omar N. Bradley, the newly-named chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, has tried to keep this goal in view.

HOUSE CUTS FUND

There were those in high position doubtful of the wisdom of pushing the arming of Europe so soon after the Atlantic pact. The fear was that this might lead the Russians to conclude that they had no choice except immediate war if they were to prevent the use of American resources in filling the defense void in the West.

But once the decision had been taken and announced, then the doubters put aside any lingering uncertainty. They believe that the United States must now go through with the program that has been proclaimed. To do less than that would, it is felt, provide another unhappy example of the kind of too little and too late vacillation that preceded the war, which began just ten years ago. To both East and West it would be a proclamation of indecision.

Yet the house has cut the amount for Western Europe in half and gone on a vacation. After the senate armed services and the foreign relations committees reach some decision, the senate will debate the question lengthily. What finally come out, at this stage, is anyone's guess.

A. Not quite. Frieze is the English form of the French frise. Both are pronounced exactly like the word freeze—one syllable only.

The Dales: According to my dictionary, the only correct pronunciation for the word anchovy is ann-cho-vee. But I feel affected using that pronunciation. What do you advise?—Mrs. T. G.

A. As a rule, any pronunciation that appears affected is not a good pronunciation, stacks of dictionaries to the contrary notwithstanding. The new dictionaries now sanction the Standard American pronunciation: ANN-cho-vee; or: ANN-chuh-vee. The second-syllable accent has never prevailed in American usage.

Preparing for the Next Campaign

Hollywood

By Erskine Johnson

Hollywood (NEA)—The Rudolph Valentino hullabaloo reminds me of what Estelle Taylor once said. She was the top glamor star in Hollywood at the same time the Great Lover was the king of the white bearskin rugs.

Estelle gave a party and asked all the ladies present to write down the name of the most glamorous man in Hollywood.

"When they compared notes every woman present had written down the name of Valentino except Estelle. She voted for Conrad Nagel.

"Maybe I was wrong," she said, "but I always thought that Valentino looked like a man who would snore."

That photograph of Alan Ladd half-stripped which Paramount's New York office reports is doing "terrific business" for "The Great Gatsby" has Alan chuckling. The photograph was taken six years ago for the picture, "China."

Just like I predicted, Clara Bow bowed out of that Santa Fe, N. M., summer theater appearance, pleading illness. The play was "Personal Appearance." Clara made it her usual personal disappearance.

Flash: Bill Demarest, the mighty fisherman who never catches anything, just caught an eight-pound blue fin tuna. Bill was a happy man until he stopped and figured out just how much the fish had cost him.

He added up the cost of chartering a boat for 16 days, the rental of a house at Balboa for a month and incidentals.

The tuna came to $144.19 per pound!

Costly Switch
Here's the inside on the switch of Bob Hope's "Where Men Are Men" to "Fancy Pants." It was Bob's title but it cost Paramount $2000. After Bob dreamed it up, the studio discovered that an obscure writer, years ago, had written a magazine article titled, "Fancy Pants."

They offered her $200 for the title. When she heard Bob wanted it so badly, the price went up to $5000. She settled for $2000.

Jack Carson and Warner Brothers are due for a showdown. There's no big beef, just general unhappiness. Jack is objecting to too much low comedy. Jack has been absent from his usual haunts for the last three weekends and eyebrows started going up. Then Jack explained he was with his 7-year-old son at a boys' camp. "I got lonesome," he said.

Bob Mitchell just moved into a new $50,000 home on a salary advance from Howard Hughes. Hollywood's fan magazine photographers report that the town's two hottest camera subjects at the moment are Elizabeth Taylor and Montgomery Clift.

Sight of the week: Lucille Ball's impersonation of "Mighty Joe Young."

Time-marches-on department: Jackie Coogan's kid brother, Robert, who once starred in "Sooky," is playing a gangster in "The Whip." He's six feet, two inches and weighs 245 pounds.

Frankie Laine will net $50,000 on his recording of "That Lucky Old Sun," the new juke box hit. It was written by Beasley Smith, 55-year-old music director of a Nashville, Tenn., radio station.

Expensive Girl
"Not wanted," the film Ida Lupino produced at a cost of $142,000 is cleaning up at the box office. Now she'll produce another. I asked her if she would appear in it. "Nope," she said, "Can't afford

Likes Welcome Wagon

August 31, 1949.

Dear Editor:

Recently there has been much talk about the Escanaba newcomers, their newly organized Women's Club, and such statements as, "Now that they've met, why don't they discontinue this thing?"

Do you readers actually know what the Welcome Wagon service is. It is really a service for you who already are residents of Escanaba and have your business here. It is a way for us to become interested in your city and do our business with you.

The number of newcomers to Escanaba within this past year would amaze all of us! Stop and consider the combined salaries of these families, and you will agree that shopping in the local business houses is the finest way to make this, or any city, grow.

It hasn't been easy for any of us to leave our homes, friends, schools, churches, and the many activities that were part of our lives. Today, we're your next door neighbors, and we want you to accept us. We're not just visitors, we're here to stay. Don't resent us, please!

Through the efforts of the Welcome Wagon hostess, Mrs. Bess Andrews, we are coming to know you and your city. This is a wonderful opportunity for us, but, what it actually means is good business for Escanaba.

I'm sure you Escanabans, as well as every newcomer, will appreciate the work of this fine person, Mrs. Bess Andrews for without her, this could be a pretty lonely place to live in—especially to a "Newcomer."

No Beauty Here

Dear Editor:

Read Eager Escanaba's letter last night and how true it is that Escanaba is a nice town to visit but not to live in—I have lived here only one year but am thoroughly disgusted and have been since the day I arrived—as far as landscaped parking areas in back of stores with show windows is pretty far fetched, there are certainly many other ways to beautify Escanaba.

Ludington Park is certainly far from a beautiful park. That shabby old bath house is a disgrace, tear it down. Plant a few flowers and put a little color in it as well, in the smaller parks about town.

Another thing that gets my goat is the way people in this town obey traffic laws. They park anywhere they take a notion, make U turns in the middle of the block or at any intersection along Ludington, and have seen when they have backed out from the curb and make a complete turn so that they could go back the same way they came, rather than back out sensibly and go around a block or go to an intersection where U turns are permissible—why not make people in this town understand the signs are up to be obeyed and not just ornaments on poles. Get busy and make this a safe town as well as beautiful.

A. L. M.

A splendid storehouse of integrity and freedom has been bequeathed to us by our forefathers. In this day of confusion, of peril to liberty, our high duty is to see that this storehouse is not robbed of its contents.—Ex-President Herbert Hoover.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Editor's Note—While Drew Pearson is on vacation, the Washington Merry-Go-Round is being written by his old partner, Robert S. Allen.

BY ROBERT S. ALLEN

Washington. — British-American differences aren't the only strained relations worrying the state department.

Behind the scenes, a trouble-breeding situation has developed with Brazil, our traditional South American ally. Cause of the disturbing dispute is a loan — with reverse English.

The Brazilians don't want the loan. They hotly charge that the Export-Import bank is trying to "black-jack" them into taking a $200,000,000 loan they don't want.

This is the Brazilians' story: Brazil owes several hundred million dollars to U. S. firms and banks for purchases of equipment and other supplies in the past year. It is conceded payments have been slow. The Brazilians explain this is due to an acute dollar shortage, as a result of a very heavy decrease in exports to the U. S.

The Brazilians say that if they can get a $40,000,000 loan to develop the vast, untapped resources of Minas Geraes, they can quickly expand their economy to meet their commercial debts. Also, that such a loan fits in squarely with President Truman's "point four" program.

But the Export-Import bank is refusing to consider this proposal until Brazil agrees to take the $200,000,000 loan.

In Rio de Janeiro, this has led to bitter feeling. Cries of "Yankee imperialism," "dollar diplomacy" and "Uncle Shylock" have been tossed around. In Washington, Ambassador Nabuco is more polite and discreet. But no bones are being made of the contention that a group of New York bankers and export firms are behind the insistence on the big loan.

Specifically, it is claimed that the Commerce & Industry association of New York has pressured the Export-Import bank into demanding that Brazil sign up for the $200,000,000 in order to pay off its commercial debts.

The Brazilians are hinting President Dutra may take the issue directly to President Truman.

Note—Minas Geraes means "General Mines" or "Abundant Minerals." The state is the richest in Brazil; also the most powerful politically, owing to its great wealth. The proposed development loan has been under consideration for some time. Elaborate scientific and economic studies have been submitted and a special envoy, Dr. Barbosa Mello, was sent to Washington to work with Ambassador Nabuco to negotiate the loan.

Adding fuel to the situation is the fact that Milton Campos, governor of Minas Geraes, is a strong possibility as Dutra's successor next year. Campos is wroth over what he considers deliberate U. S. refusal to aid the development of his state.

PEACE, IT'S WONDERFUL!

An intriguing little drama went practically unnoticed at the opening banquet of the American Legion convention in Philadelphia.

Two old foes of the Roosevelt cabinet embraced and made up.

They were Defense Secretary Louis Johnson and former Secretary of War Harry Woodring.

Johnson was Woodring's assistant secretary, and the two men differed hotly on rearmament and intervention in the war. Johnson favored both; Woodring, a Kansan, was opposed. Woodring was dropped first; Johnson later, on the insistence of Secretary of War Henry Stimson, who demanded his own associates.

After Johnson's appointment as defense secretary, newsmen, recalling the Woodring feud, asked the latter for a statement. The reporters expected a blast. Instead, Woodring warmly commended his old rival and expressed the opinion he would do an outstanding job.

At the Legion banquet, Johnson, sitting at the head table, spotted Woodring on the floor. Rising, Johnson went to Woodring and greeted him warmly. Later, when Woodring left, he walked up to Johnson and bade him a cordial good-bye.

Peace, it's wonderful!

Potter of Alma, Mich., the intricacies of setting up a tent. On the opening day of the meeting about 400 persons were present for services, and on Saturday nearly 1,000 Adventists from this sector heard Elder Michael Kietzky and other pastors speak. Those attending the camp meeting from areas removed from Wilson lived in these tents, and in between meetings cooked their own meals. Most families brought all their children with them. Left to right in the picture, next to the fuel can, are Mrs. A. E. Gustafson, Mrs. Mary Clark, Mrs. Letha Clark and Mrs. Robert Magray of Crystal Falls; Mrs. John Magray of Iron River, Mrs. Ida Nyquist of Crystal Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Mann of Iron Mountain.

NEW ADVENTIST CHURCH—When Upper Michigan Adventists met at Wilson, the newly-constructed church looked like this. The building houses a 48 by 80 auditorium and has a seating capacity of 500. The entrance measures 12 by 34 feet. The old church was destroyed by fire about a year ago. Originally the congregation had hoped to have the new church, one of the largest country churches in Northern Michigan, completed in time for the camp meeting. However, a heavy wind blew in June of this year, and the partially completed building was blown over. The cars you see represent a small fraction of the flotilla of cars at the church when the meeting was in progress. The church will be completed within the next three weeks.

Finland Beats Reds In Strike

Communists Are Out Of Trade Federation

By ESTHER TUFTY
Helsinki, Finland — The Finns are not only winning the Communist-inspired strike but the right kind of victory to preserve their "live and let live" policy towards the East.
That wasn't, and still isn't easy. Some 25,000 men are still out of work. The Central Federation of Finnish Trade Unions, to which all unions had belonged, is now minus the Communists who are continuing the illegal strikes. Leaders call this a new "nuisance".

No newly arrived American can fully appreciate the fight to preserve independence. The delicate strategy was dramatically demonstrated up north at Kemi, where the strike broke out a couple of weeks ago.
Had To Prevent Jam
The employers of a small wood industry plant reduced the wages of their 53 employees in line with the national wage scale. Nearby the logs were tumbling down the river and the government had to act fast to prevent a log jam, with approaching winter.

The incident was perfect for the Communists, who began to give persuasive speeches to workers not having too easy a time in the post-war years. Yet no nation-wide strike resulted, only a few sympathy strikes.

To settle the strike the government restored the wages at the Kemi plant. That was hailed in Moscow as a triumph.

This pleased rather than displeased the Finns, looking for a long term bigger victory.
As one cabinet member told me "the Germans took Leningrad, but they didn't win the war."

The Social Democrat government had to offer a formula that permitted some of its own members, who had joined the strikers, to go back to work without losing face.

Reds Not So Smart
If the Russians had been smart, many say here, they would have acclaimed the Kemi decision as a total victory and stopped the striking. But they continued the now-illegal striking. That fight they are losing every day as more and more men go back on the job.

Keenly-conscious the strike incident is a sharp test of Finland's post-war independence of her big Soviet neighbor next door, the powerful Minister of Social Affairs, Aleksi Aaltonen, said flatly.

"It will be victory of the government," Mr. Aaltonen said the disturbance "had not changed things." Moscow did not rush to the sup-

Program Will Be Held On Monday

Nahma, Mich.—The Lions club will sponsor a Labor Day picnic at the Nahma park on Monday, Sept. 5.

The day's activities will start at 9 a. m. and will continue throughout the day. There will be races, games and contests for young and old. Refreshments will be served. Proceeds will be used by the Lions club to pay for the public address system donated to the F. W. Good high school.

port—or the rescue—of the local Communists who if anything are weaker since their attempt to take control by creating havoc.

The wily Finns wanted no smashing victory over the Communists. That would not be smart. Neither did they want a slow-down in production necessary to pay off those burdensome reparations to the Russians by 1952. And there will be none.

Marsten Transferred From Sherwood Mine

Iron River, Mich.—Announcement was made this week of the transfer of Richard Marsten, assistant superintendent of the Sherwood mine in Mineral Hills, to the position of assistant superintendent of the Morris mine in Ishpeming. Both properties are operated by the Inland Steel Company.

Marsten who resides at the corner of Fourth street and Lincoln avenue in Stambaugh will move to Ishpeming with his wife and their small son, William Robert, within several weeks.

A native of Bethlehem, Pa., and a graduate of Lehigh university, Marsten has been on the Sherwood staff for three and one-half years, coming here in January, 1946 following his discharge from the army air forces in which he held the rank of captain.

He came here as an engineer and last year was promoted to assistant superintendent. The headquarters of the Inland Steel's iron mining operations in the Lake Superior region are located in Ishpeming where R. D. Satterley, former Sherwood superintendent, is general superintendent.

Marsten has been active in civic, fraternal, musical and veterans affairs. He has been a musician in the Caspian Municipal band, a member of the Iron county Reserve Officers association, a member of the Iron River Masonic lodge, a member of the Upper Peninsula Cloverland symphony. Mrs. Marsten, a member of the Eastern Star, has been active in women's club circles of the west side.

Spanish American Veterans Meeting

Valentine Camp, Spanish American War Veterans, will meet Monday evening, Labor Day, at 7:30 in the council rooms of the Escanaba City Hall. Inspection will be conducted by the state commander and Roger W. Campbell, Camp commander, requests every member to attend.

We say FREEZING is the modern way to preserve

it's easier! it's cooler! it's quicker!

Some day you'll wonder why you ever stood over a hot stove for hours to preserve, when it's so easy with a home freezer.
Just picture yourself preserving this modern, easier way:
1. You scald your vegetables.
2. Pack and seal them in sanitary, airtight containers.
3. Put them in your home freezer! And that's all!
We have the General Electric Home Freezer that's roomy enough to hold 280 pounds of food. There's also a smaller model—4-cu-ft—that holds 140 pounds. You can preserve foods the year round—and keep them delicious and fresh up to a year.

General Electric Home Freezers are available in 4- and 8-cu-ft models. Immediate delivery.
General Electric Home Freezer ONLY $31.00 DOWN
THE G-E Home Freezer is, we think, the finest home freezer you can buy. We say this after making comparisons throughout the field.
For one thing, it's dependable. In the General Electric Home Freezer is the very same type refrigerating system used in the General Electric Refrigerator. And, more than 1,700,000 of these systems have been in use ten years or longer.
The General Electric cabinet is called the "Perfect Seal." Repeated laboratory tests have proved that the cabinet keeps food frozen for several days after the current has been shut off.
After all, we don't have to sell you on the General Electric name. You probably have as much faith in this great electrical organization as we have.
With the General Electric Home Freezer, you get a written five-year protection plan, consisting of a one-year warranty against defective material or workmanship—plus an additional four-year protection on the sealed-in refrigerating system.
Remember, when you're buying a home freezer you're making a long-term investment. So invest in the best. Invest in a dependable, proved General Electric Home Freezer.
You may use our CONVENIENT PAYMENT PLAN to purchase your new G-E Home Freezer.
For quick-freezing foods at home... For storing the frozen foods you buy.

IT BEGAN TEN YEARS AGO

Ten years ago it started — the most devastating, costly, earth-shaking war in human history. At dawn on September 1, 1939, Germany's high-riding Fuehrer, Adolf Hitler, sent his crack mechanized troops racing into Poland. Soon Great Britain and France came into the fight, and before long the flames of war crackled over the entire European continent and Asia and Africa as well. Hitler's War has been over four years now, but Europe is still in turmoil because of it. The destruction, revolution and political upheavals it has caused may leave their mark for centuries. Here are highlights of the European struggle which overturned the world.

FIRST ACT. Motorized Nazis slice into Poland against weak resistance.

DESPERATE DAYS. British troops escape to a rescue ship at Dunkerque.

DER FUEHRER'S FUN. Hitler dances a jig as France falls.

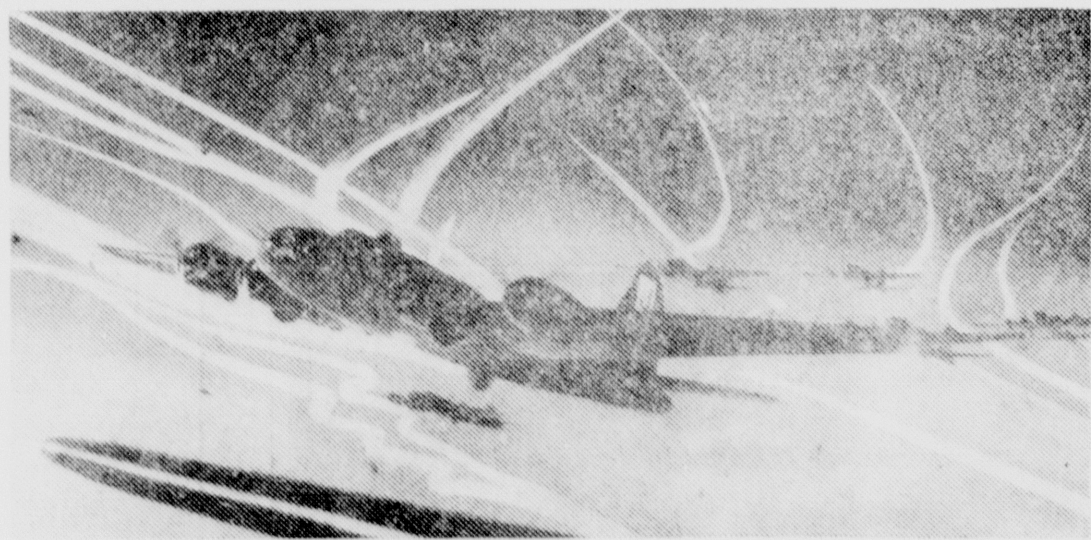

TEARS FOR FRANCE, by a Frenchman, as the Nazis take over.

BRITAIN IS BLITZED. Bombs fall at historic St. Paul's.

CLOSE CALL. A bomb almost hits an Allied truck on the Egyptian front.

ON THE SKY TRAIL. U.S. bombers fly out to blast enemy territory.

SEIGE OF STALINGRAD. The Nazis failure here marked the war's turning point.

D-DAY. The Allies invaded Normandy with awe-inspiring might.

YANK PRISONER, a victim of Nazi starvation treatment.

VICTORY'S PREVIEW. As Allies retook Paris, Yanks marched through en route to Berlin.

Miss Polishak
Bride, Ceremony
Held In Chicago

Miss Sadie Polishak of Chicago, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Polishak of Perronville, became the bride of Joseph J. Smolucha, jr., son of the senior Joseph J. Smolucha, of 5036 South Ada street, Chicago, at a ceremony August 27 at 10 o'clock in St. John of God church. Father Rydecki solemnized the marriage service before an altar decorated with gladioli and palms.

The bride wore a gown of white satin and lace with a court train and a full-length lace edged veil caught to a beaded crown and she carried white roses and stephanotis, centered with white orchids. The maid of honor wore green dotted swiss and carried yellow roses and the bridesmaids were in yellow dotted swiss and their bouquets were red roses. The flower girl's frock was a replica of the maid of honor's and she carried a miniature bouquet of yellow roses.

Planning Work For Unemployed

Sidewalk Repairing Jobs Scheduled

In order to provide employment for Gladstone residents who are not now gainfully employed and to assist them in some manner, the City Commission Wednesday evening authorized City Manager H. J. Henrikson to inaugurate a program of sidewalk repair in which the city will participate.

A survey is to be made of all concrete walks in the city and then notices will be sent to property owners whose walks are faulty or in need of repair advising them of the fact and pointing out that if they desire the city crews will do the repair work on a cash basis of 25 cents per square foot or about what was charged before the war.

The notice sent will be in the nature of a form which can be signed and returned to the city authorizing the work to be done.

Where such authorization is not forthcoming the work will be done and the charge made against the property as a special assessment. The same assessment procedure will be made where the work is authorized, done, and then payment is not made.

Ordinarily the cost at present per square foot will run about 35c, City manager Henrikson said.

Work would be rotated among the unemployed who desire it, it was stated.

Considerable work could be given by such a program, the city manager said, because much of it is done by hand.

The commission also authorized the cost of excavating, engineering and supervision on the Thirteenth street surfacing project which has been requested. In the case of blacktop, this cuts the cost by about half on concrete about one-third. Now terms are being sent to each property owner affected.

Golf Club Ladies Plan Buffet Dinner On Monday Evening

Ladies of the Gladstone Golf club are sponsoring a buffet dinner Monday evening from 5 to 7 o'clock at the clubhouse. The dinner is open to the general public.

It will follow the awarding of prizes to the winners in the Men's Golf tournament which is scheduled to wind up Monday.

Miss Helen Erickson is chairman of the event. Other members of the committee are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Knutsen, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Erickson and George Perrin.

Tickets for the dinner are available from any committee member or at the Central Pharmacy, Dehlin drug store or Siebert Hardware.

Atlas Plywood Corp. Diversifies Operations

Mass production of hardwood plywoods in grades being utilized extensively in the construction, wood-working and related industries has been inaugurated by Atlas Plywood Corp., it became known yesterday, as a means of diversifying operations in its network of plants in 13 New England, Southern and Mid-western States.

The move is designed to supplement Atlas' large-scale domestic business in prefabricated plywood packing cases and to provide an offset to the fairly sizable export volume in plywood that all but vanished since January, last, due to the lack of dollars abroad.

Atlas' departure from generation-long concentration upon packing case manufacture, an activity accounting for the great bulk of the nation's annual output of such plywood products, was revealed by Elmore I. MacPhie, president, in his annual report, being mailed to stockholders. Mr. MacPhie disclosed that two newly converted plants—one at Greenville, Me., and the other at Goldboro, N. C.—already have begun producing the better grades of plywood and that a third plant, at Gladstone, Mich., is undergoing a changeover to the end that output may get under way before the close of 1949.

Trade response to the new plywoods, Mr. MacPhie declared, has been "gratifying" and the outlook "seems promising for good production and satisfactory profits." Such a development, he remarked, should offset, in large measure, "the loss in volume and profits from former export sales."

The latter factor, together with general price reductions, was responsible, he explained, for the 25 per cent decrease in net sales for the fiscal year ended June 30, last, and which, in turn, occasioned a contraction in net income, after taxes and charges and before inventory adjustment to $1,828,671 from the $3,195,744 earned in the previous twelve-month period.

Although the plywood hitherto sold abroad was superior in quality to that obtainable elsewhere and was priced competitively, Mr. MacPhie said, demand has been diverted to products made in Japan, Finland and Sweden because of their availability in exchange for pound sterling. This, he pointed out, is a condition which all United States exporters have encountered, with no improvement in prospect "unless some means are provided for the conversion of foreign currencies into dollars or unless part of United States funds supplied to foreign countries is restricted to the purchase of American goods."

For several years through 1948 and until the curtailment of domestic buying in January, last, when "a marked and unexpected falling off in demand developed all over the country," all of Atlas' plants, Mr. MacPhie noted, had been operated at full capacity on orders which regularly exceeded production. Demand for packing cases from varied consuming industries, he indicated, has shown improvement since July 1, and many of the corporation's customers were reported as "having advised us that they expect good

61 Night Games Among 167 On U. P. High School Grid Schedule This Season

Escanaba Opens At Soo Next Friday Night; St. Joseph's Host To Gladstone Sept. 10

The Upper Peninsula high school football schedule will open tonight with Kingsford invading Marquette and Bessemer travelling to Iron River for a traditional classic.

Of 167 games on the state this fall, 61 are night games. Escanaba's Eskymos will play three night games, all away from home, and St. Joseph's of Escanaba will play four night games, all at home. The St. Joe Trojans will use Memorial field, a lighted softball field, which will be converted into a gridiron for Trojan use. The Escanaba high school field is not lighted.

Seven games are on the card tomorrow, with Sault Ste. Marie's Blue Devils invading Munising and the Manistique Emeralds traveling to Ishpeming for a night game.

The Eskymos do not open until next Friday night at Sault Ste. Marie. Their other night games are at Kingsford Oct. 7 and at Marquette Oct. 22. The first home game is with Ironwood Saturday afternoon, Sept. 17. Gladstone opens at St. Joseph's Saturday night, Sept. 10.

Nu-Way Wins Softball Title

After upsetting the favored Liberty Loans, U. P. runnerups, in the American league finals, 3-2, the hot Nu-Ways went on to stop Northland Stores, 11-4, champion of the National league, to win the overall city softball championship at Memorial field last night.

Northland topped the National by besting the Steam Laundry, 9-6 in the finals last night. Meanwhile at Dock diamond, Flat Rock got around to ousting Northern Motors, 12-7, in a postponed first-round game in the Oldtimers tournament, which will be completed tonight.

On top tonight are the following semifinal Oldtimers tilts: P&C vs. Press at Dock diamond, 6:30, and Birdseye vs. Flat Rock at Memorial, 6:30. The winners will meet for the title at Memorial at 9 this evening.

Benefit For 'Polly'

Perronville Invades Bark River Monday

Bark River, Sept. 2—The stage is all set for the big benefit game here Labor day afternoon (Monday) for Napoleon "Polly" Belanger, veteran Bark River utility man and man-about-town who was seriously injured when struck by a train a few weeks ago. He is still in serious condition at St. Francis hospital, Escanaba.

Proceeds from the Perronville-Bark River feature game at 2:30 here Monday afternoon will go to help out "Polly", who is known and liked by everyone in Bark River.

Belanger has been on the job for 20 years in Bark River and has been a big help for the sparkling Bark River ball club, defending champion in the fast Tri-County league.

It was hoped that he could see the Labor day classic, but because of his condition, it will be impossible for him to be moved from the hospital. Instead, members of the team will autograph the game baseball and send it to him right after the game.

Perronville was twice beaten by Bark River during the regular season, but since this is an exhibition tilt, it is expected the Perrons will visit the Barks well loaded for "bear" more or less.

Off the cuff: With Escanaba and Menominee struggling along each with only two regulars back from first-rate 1948 elevens and rebuilding from the bottom up, the word is out that Iron Mountain and Ironwood will be the U. P. high school gridiron powerhouses this season. . . . Menominee has only John Krah, end, and Jack Anderson, center, back from the first team. . . . And Escanaba's only regulars are Pat Farrell, now a back, and Jim Chapekis, guard.

Highland Golf Meet Set For This Weekend

Vial Smith, long-driving veteran of Highland golfing wars, will defend his championship in the annual men's championship of the Highland Golf club which will open at 1 tomorrow afternoon and end with the championship finals Monday afternoon.

Gerald Harris copped medalist honors with 35-38-73. Competitors in four flights will play 18-hole matches tomorrow afternoon, 18 again Sunday morning and the semifinals will be played Monday morning.

Pairings follow:
Championship Flight
Vial Smith vs. Oliver Christensen, Abe Milkovich vs. Toby Furten, Jim Douglas vs. Ed Martinson, Fred Hirt, jr. vs. Jack Beauchamp, Gerald Harris vs. Allan Martin, Barney Barnhart vs. Ernie Flath, Ray Hirt vs. Ed Hirt, Sr. Ed Gravelle vs. William Morris.

First Flight
Einar Beck vs. Vernon Wicklander, Lawrence Beauchamp vs. Bert Erickson, Ken Johnson vs. Joe Kroll, Sid Lambert vs. G. E. Hirt, Hazen Hengesh vs. Bill Berglund, Ernest Martin vs. Max Saums, Francis Langenfeld vs. Art Jensen.

Second Flight
George Champlap vs. Frank Raack, Ben Douglas vs. Howard Wade, Tom Swift vs. Carl Friets, Gunnar Nelson vs. Earl Brown, Wolford Peterson vs. Harold Wickstrom, John Horney vs. Marcel Ashland, Ernest LaCrosse vs. Warren Scarr, Lloyd Peltier vs. Conrad Finstrom.

Third Flight
O. L. McCormick vs. I. R. Peterson, William Boyle vs. Ragner Beck, Russ Simmons vs. Phil Norman, Bud Stas vs. Harlan Yelland and Whitney Dixon vs. C. E. Johnson.

Escanaba Loans Enter State Softball Meet

Lansing, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Seventy-one softball teams will converge on Lansing this week to settle championships in the Men's and Women's Class A, B and C brackets. Among Upper Michigan entries will be the Escanaba Liberty Loans. The play starts with six Class A games tonight.

Trenary Nine Host To Cooks Sunday

Trenary, Sept. 2.—The fast Trenary aggregation, top team in the Rainbow league at the end of the regular season, will be host to Cooks, twice champions of the Bay de Noc Baseball league, in a feature attraction here at 2:30 Sunday afternoon.

This is the first of a home-and-home series. Trenary will trek to Cooks the following Sunday afternoon for the return game.

Spahn And Braves Tip Chicago Cubs By 8-4

Boston, Sept. 2 (AP)—The Boston Braves gave Lefty Warren Spahn 13 hits, including Bill Sakfeld's one-on homer, as he became the National league's first 17-game winner yesterday with a 3-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs. Bob Scheffing homered for the cellerites.

New York National Guard Softball Aces To Battle Escanabans At 2 Saturday

It will be New York vs. Upper Michigan when the fly-boys of the 1901st Engineer Aviation battalion of Brooklyn, N. Y., battle the Escanaba National Guard all-stars of the U. P.'s 107th Engineer Combat battalion at Memorial field tomorrow afternoon.

Ray Wahowiak and Dopey Johnson, two of the most colorful and most emphatic umpires in local softball circles, will call the game, which will get underway at 2 o'clock.

IT'S FOR FREE

No admission will be charged for the National Guard feature softball game at Memorial field Saturday afternoon, it was announced this morning. Because it is a day game and because the New Yorkers are coming here under their own power, in a National Guard C-47, it will not be necessary to charge admission, officials said.

Among local favorites who will compose the Escanaba Guard all-stars for this feature attraction are Louie Kositzky, Tom Ellegre, Paul Larson, Dave Larson, Don Scott, Bob L'Houillier, Dick Lough, Bert Goodreau, Bob DuFour, Walter Flath, Tom St. Germain, Barney Millette, Glenn Meintz and Wayne Dugener.

The all-stars' board of strategy will consist of Paul Yardigan, George Grenholm, Cliff Frasier and Major Jim Ward and Capt. Roy Johnson of the Upper Michigan National Guard forces.

The New Yorkers, a top-ranking team in their sector, will fly to the Upper Peninsula for a three-game series over Labor Day weekend. After meeting Escanaba tomorrow afternoon, they'll fly to Calumet for a Sunday night game and thence to Sault Ste. Marie for a Monday morning game before returning to their base, Floyd Bennett field, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Arriving at the Escanaba municipal airport at 11 tomorrow morning, they'll be met by an official welcoming committee consisting of Hugh Grow, secretary of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, and members of the Chamber aviation committee, Gerald Cleary, Fred Sensiba, A. V. Aronson, William J. Duchaine, Denis McGinn, H. J. Norton, F. W. Schmitt, Claude Tobin, jr., and Mayor Robert E. LeMire and Major James G. Ward and Capt. Roy Johnson of the U. P. National Guard battalion.

The visitors will be guests of Pat Hayes for luncheon at the House of Ludington at noon, and from there they'll be taken to Memorial field for a 2 p. m. game. They are slated to take off at 5 p. m. for Calumet to continue their U. P. tour.

All are reputed to be plus six-footers and at least 190 pounds in weight. That is said to be the Brooklyn physical requirements for enlistment in the 1901st Engr. Avn. Bn.

It all started at Camp Grayling when Lt. Col. George Brown, commanding officer of the 1901st, told Lt. Col. William F. Milford, Jr., commanding officer of the 107th, that he had a team that could quote beat any softball team in the Upper Peninsula unquote.

He was greeted with a chorus of "ug-ugs" by Colonel Milford and his staff. Hence the U. P. air tour and whirlwind three-game series in Escanaba, Calumet and Sault Ste. Marie was born.

And, as they used to say in the service, this is it! Lt. George J. Hartmueller and 18 Brooklyn huskies will be here tomorrow to display the eastern brand of softball and to try to back up Colonel Brown's strong words.

SOFTBALL

Hughes-Tomlinson will meet Escanaba Steam Laundry at Memorial Field at 7 tomorrow night. The winner will then play Northland Stores at 8:30 to decide the National league season championship.

After the last round of league play three teams were tied for first place in the junior circuit and a playoff to determine the undisputed champion was agreed upon by the three managers. In an open draw at the lighted field last night Northland Stores got the bye and need to win but a single game while either Steam Laundry or H-T will have to play two in a row to top the title.

Last night the Stores won the National league tournament by defeating Steam Laundry, 9 to 6.

White Sox Jump On Washington, 3 to 0

Chicago, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Dick Weik, Rookie Washington right hander, walked 13 batters in seven innings here last night as the Chicago White Sox defeated the Senators, 3-0, before 4,219 persons here tonight. Randy Gumpert pitched the distance for the sixteenth time in 27 starts on a yield of four singles for his Eleventh victory. The Box:

Washington 000 000 000—0 4 3
Chicago 000 001 20x—3 4 0

Saving Their Best For Last, Tiges Blank Parnell, Bosox

Detroit, Sept. 2 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers saved their best for the last in the just-completed Boston series and accomplished the seemingly impossible—a 7 to 0 rout of ace southpaw Mel Parnell.

Ever since Parnell broke into the big leagues, he had only to be named as the starting pitcher against Detroit and the Tigers could count a game in the lost column.

That happened nine times—until yesterday afternoon. Then, with the star pitcher trying for his 21st win and Boston's Red Sox out for a three-game sweep of their series with Detroit, it was Tiger hurler Art Houtteman instead of Parnell who had the magic in his pitching arm.

Art set the Red stockings down with seven scattered hits and didn't allow a runner to reach third base.

Today the Tigers take on another veteran hurler who has done well against them, Mickey Hachner of the Chicago White Sox. Virgil Trucks, bidding for victory No. 16 against 10 losses, will go against the Chicago moundsman, who has a record of eight wins and seven defeats.

Oddly enough, every one of the 15 Detroit and seven Boston hits yesterday were singles.

Parnell's downfall came when he let the Tigers string five of those one-baggers together in the fourth. Don Kolloway, Pat Mullin, Vic Wertz, George Kell and Hoot Evers rattled them all over the park and had three runs across the plate in that inning before Boston could get anyone out.

One more score came in on a sacrifice and a forfeit before the side was retired. Those four runs were plenty for Houtteman, who gained his 13th triumph this year, but his lead was further reinforced in the seventh and eighth.

Singles by Kolloway, Evers and Berry knocked Parnell out of the box in the seventh and scored two other runs. Houtteman himself crossed home plate with the last Tiger score that was charged to relief pitcher Walter Masterson in the eighth. He had singled and moved around on a sacrifice and Mullins third hit of the afternoon.

Only Wertz outdid Mullin in the hitting department, getting four out of five and driving home a run with a long fly his other time up. He added two to his runs batted in total, which now stands at 116.

The box score:

News From Big Ten Grid Camps

Chicago, Sept. 2 (AP)—Chuck Hagmann, regular end on last year's Northwestern football team, appears lost for the season, it was learned today. The Wildcat end suffered a back injury in an automobile accident this summer.

Coach Bob Voigts had Burt Keddie, 195 pound junior, take over Hagmann's right flank post as the Wildcats went through a light workout yesterday.

Notes from other Big Ten grid camps:

Illinois: Coach Ray Eliot shifted Lynn Lynch, former tackle, and Rudy Valentine, sophomore end, to guard positions in yesterday's workout.

Iowa: Al Di Marco, Hawkeye passing star last year, joined the coaching staff and began tutoring quarterbacks. Coach Eddie Anderson said the squad will "get down to hard work next week."

Purdue: Punters and passers got extra attention as the Roller-makers went through their second day of double drills. Bob Hartman and Ken Gergel appeared as logical contenders for the passing assignment vacated by Bob De Moss.

Indiana: Fullback Milan Sellers was hampered by a twisted knee as the Hoosiers went through their practice sessions.

Michigan: Line Coach Jack Bleit hunted for offensive linemen. It appeared that Irv Wisniewski and Harry Allis had the edge on the end posts filled last year.

Wisconsin: An all-veteran offensive lineup worked on plays as Coach Ivy Williamson sent the Badgers through their second day of double workouts. He set Saturday as a tentative day for the squad's first scrimmage.

Minnesota: The Cophers' first string backfield in yesterday's drill was composed of Dick Anonson, quarterback; Bill Bye, left halfback; Ralph McAllister, right halfback, and Ken Beiersdorf, fullback. The squad took part in a light scrimmage.

Ohio State: Sixty three Buckeye griders went through two workouts with everything on the practice menu except a full-scale scrimmage after the afternoon drill. Coach Wesley Fessler said he was pleased with the squad's physical condition.

U. P. Publicized By Columnist

Erich Brandeis Is Planning Trip

The Upper Peninsula's vacation attractions are given nationwide publicity by Erich Brandeis in his daily "Looking at Life" column syndicated to American newspapers by King Features Syndicate.

His comments were as follows: The window of my study looks out upon the road and the mailbox.

And, there, right this minute, is the mailman stuffing a bundle of big brown envelopes into the box.

I know as sure as I am sitting here, it's another batch of resort folders.

This is how it all happened. I told you that my wife and I were planning to take an automobile trip to Michigan and Wisconsin, since we have never seen that famous lake region.

Not knowing exactly where to go, I asked Paul Elliott, city editor of the Muskegon, Mich., Chronicle, to give me a little outline of such a trip so as to get the most for my time and pocketbook.

This is what Paul Elliott considers "a little outline".

First he sent me a two-page letter with exact directions.

Then came a thick brown envelope, packed with maps and booklets and folders.

Next arrived a letter from George E. Bishop, secretary-manager of the "Upper Peninsula Development Bureau" with some more information.

That was followed by another fat brown envelope containing the 178-page illustrated "Lure Book" and some thirty folders, booklets and maps.

Since then, everyday, resorts have been sending me their literature. Chambers of Commerce are painting their attractions in glowing colors.

Every mail is bringing additional "Lure".

According to the folders there must be a million paradises in Michigan and Wisconsin.

Who for instance, could resist such a romantic name as "Kitch-iti-ki-pi"?

The Indians knew it as "The Mirror of Heaven", the folder tells me. "One of the seven wonders of Upper Michigan", writes the Omar Khayyam of "Kitch-iti-ki-pi", as he shows a picture of a bevy of lovely sirens, reflecting their graces in its silvery waters.

Can we possibly pass up a trip to lovely Tahquamenon Falls where you see "deer, bear and other animals on the way", yet do not have to miss your franks and soda pops while the boat wends its tortuous way through the primordial wilderness?

And how about Les Cheneaux Islands, "akin to Fairyland"?

How about O'Neke-A-Ma" on beautiful Portage Lake?

How about Muskegon, where long before Jean Nicolet, Pont-taluna, greatest war chief of the Ottawas lived with his tribe?

The names alone you find in these regions are enough to make you feel like a caveman, tingle you with curiosity and arouse your desire to linger and explore.

I wouldn't be a bit surprised if Paul Bunyan himself came up to greet us at the Michigan border; offered to show us through the wonders of his lake and timber country and spin his tall tales as we travel along.

We are going to see the Wisconsin Delta, of course, and Charlevoix and Mackinac. We hope to visit the "Soo" and many other places with strange-sounding names like Ishpeming and Michigamme, Manistique and Keweenaw, that promise beauty, adventure and romance.

And when we are back home again, I'm sure we will thank God for having been privileged to see another glorious part of "My Country 'tis of Thee".

Delayed By Automobile Breakdown, Miss White Leaves For Fair Today

Miss Judy White, Gladstone's fair Upper Peninsula state fair queen, and her chaperone, Mrs. Gunther C. Meyland, of Marquette, missed the Nationwide plane yesterday when their automobile broke down enroute here from Three Lakes, Wis., but they essary for our continued strength and prosperity as a nation."

An estimated 60,000 Legionnaires attended the mammoth convocation which retiring National Commander Perry Brown, Beaumont, Tex., called "the best in our long and colorful history."

The Legion took these stands: 1. The U. S. should retain atomic energy under civilian control and not share the atom secrets with any nation, including our Allies.

2. Aid to China Nationalists fighting Communism.

3. Curtailment "as far as possible" of any further immigration at the present time.

4. Approval of universal military training and end of the present draft law.

5. Establishment of a national air academy.

6. Endorsement of a self-help plan to bring new jobs, industry and housing to the nation's cities and towns.

7. The Communist party should be outlawed.

In each instance, the Legion called on its membership to support the Legion program and to fight for its adoption.

ed with that of the president's aide.

McCarthy said—and Helis' son denied—that the oil man had an interest in a California race track which got scarce building materials last year after Vaughan had talked to housing officials.

At another point, Vaughan denied ever having pressured agriculture department officials to grant more grain to a distillery in which McCarthy said Helis had an interest.

All McCarthy could draw from Vaughan was that Helis had raised political campaign funds for the Democratic party.

Columnist Drew Pearson, who testified yesterday, also brought the subject of campaign contributions into the record.

North Koreans Told To Invade South Or Return Russian Guns

Seoul, Sept. 2 (P)—Word spread here today that the Russians are demanding return of weapons loaned to North Korea Communists unless the southern Republic is invaded by the end of this month.

An American officer assigned to intelligence for the American embassy said the report was "possibly true." He said he had received it from two sources.

Korean officials also heard the same report from various sources. One Korean version was that the Soviets merely would end military assistance to the north Communist regime unless the south was taken over.

Defense Minister Sibn Sung Mo told the Associated Press that the report, whether true or not, would not change the policy of the Republic's army. He said it is on the defense at all times against possible invasion by the Communists.

TWO FLIERS HURT
Detroit, (P)—Ralph Fuller, 32, of New Baltimore, Mich., pilot, and Kingsley Seebay, 31, of Detroit, suffered cuts and bruises when their small plane crashed landed at Wings airport, Centerline, Mich., yesterday.

were to leave via Nationwide plane today for Detroit and the state fair.

Two cancellations on the plane today made it possible for them to get away today. Otherwise, the pair would have had to wait until tomorrow and possibly the next day.

Miss White will compete in the Michigan state fair queen contest, billed as the "fairest of the fair." This contest is entirely separate from the Miss Michigan contest conducted in Detroit last night. That contest was to select the state's entry in the Miss America event in Atlantic City, N. J.

Miss White was a guest of the Northern Hotel management at Three Lakes, Wis., and was en route to Gladstone and Escanaba from the hotel in the Gordon Kelley automobile when the car broke down in Wisconsin and they were unable to take the plane yesterday as scheduled.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kelley were driving Miss White to Gladstone when the mishap occurred.

C. of C. Retailers Entertain Teachers

One hundred and sixty-five teachers of the Escanaba city schools were guests of the retail division of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce at a dinner held at the Escanaba Golf club last night.

Addresses of welcome were delivered by Fred Ross, chairman of the C. of C. retailers, and Charles E. Lewis, president of the Escanaba board of education.

Clarence E. Moore, president of the Escanaba district of the M. E. A., gave the response.

A talk on "America As I See It" was given by Miss Lydia Carra, exchange teacher from Australia, who will teach in the Jackson public schools the coming year.

Check Forger Draws Jail For Bad Spelling

Detroit, Sept. 2 (P)—William Murray, 22, will have three to 14 years in prison to learn how to spell "ninety." A clerk became suspicious when Murray wrote it "ninty" on a $90-check made out to himself. Murray admitted stealing blank checks from auto companies and filling them in to suit himself. He was sentenced by Recorder's Judge Gerald W. Groat.

Leo Beauchamp Joins Insurance Firm In City

Leo J. Beauchamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Beauchamp of this city, has become associated with the Art Goulais Insurance agency, it was announced today.

Beauchamp, who will specialize in the health and accident field as well as other types of insurance and real estate, attended St. Ann school and graduated from Escanaba high school in 1941. The Escanaban served overseas two and a half years with the army air force in World War II and was discharged in September, 1945.

Following his discharge, Beauchamp enrolled at the University of Wisconsin and majored in economics and insurance. He was graduated in June of this year, and is an alumnus of the University of Wisconsin Insurance society.

Otto Smith Back In Jail For New 30 Day Sentence

Otto Smith, Stephenson avenue, released only a few days ago after serving 25 days of a 30 day jail sentence for disorderly conduct, is back in the county jail for another 30 day sentence.

Smith, who has been arrested no less than 34 times by local police, was arrested Aug. 1 for disorderly conduct but was released on a promise to get out of town. A couple days later he was rearrested and sent to jail for 30 days.

After serving 25 days, Smith was released for good conduct, but after being out from behind the bars for only a couple days Smith got drunk again and wrecked some plumbing at Wiles' Tavern.

Smith was sentenced to another 30 days and his partner, George Meyers, was released on a promise to make restitution for half of the damages to the plumbing.

Plane Takes U. P. Group To State Fair

Claude E. Bishop, field representative of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau and queens' day manager for the U. P. state fair, was receiving replies to his invitation sent civic officials and newspapermen to participate in a "flying ambassador" trip to the state fair in Detroit.

The group, including Bishop, left Escanaba this afternoon on a special Nationwide Airlines plane and will return Sunday afternoon.

The air jaunt, for which special rates have been set up by Nationwide, is for the purpose of sending an Upper Peninsula delegation to the fair for U. P. day Saturday.

Among activities scheduled for the group will be attendance at the Bob Hope show, high school band and orchestra concerts, parades, 4-H club demonstrations, old-time dancing, Upper Peninsula amateur contest and the atomic show, all at no expense to the Upper Michigan men.

Among those invited, several of whom have notified Bishop they will take part in the trip, are: Carl Olson and Doug W. Nash, president and secretary-manager of the Marquette Chamber of Commerce, respectively; Frank J. Russell, publisher of The Mining Journal; Robert LeMire, mayor of Escanaba;

John McInnes, Sault Ste. Marie; R. E. Allingham, Escanaba; Walter P. Corey, Munising; William Kell, Wilson, Victor E. Lemmer, Ironwood, and Harold P. Lindsay, Escanaba, all members of the U. P. state fair board;

G. T. Murphy, Calumet; Mayor James M. Kehoe and Chamber Secretary Ray Laufenberg, of Menominee; F. A. Flodin and Mayor Erminio C. Raffin, of Iron Mountain; Gerald Warrenner, secretary of the Ontonagon Chamber of Commerce; Mayor Elson E. Carberry and Chamber Secretary Jeff Bodette of Munising; Mayor Herbert E. Hagelin and Howard Billings, of Iron River; Commissioner Ted Caffee, Sault Ste. Marie and William Johnson, secretary of the Ironwood Chamber.

MARQUETTE CHANGES

Marquette (P) Marquette county, which has been on Eastern Standard Time since the spring of 1948, will switch to Central Time this month. The county stayed on eastern time last winter due to an electrical power shortage caused by lack of rainfall.

Detroit Girl, 18, Is Miss Michigan

Detroit, Sept. 2 (P)—Tall, blonde Delores Jane Motter of Detroit was chosen Miss Michigan last night over a scanty field of two other contestants.

Also-rans were Miss Lapeer, Arlene Andress, 21, and Miss Shiawassee county, Vera Rumisek, 21, of New Lothrop.

Nine of twelve regional contestants did not even appear.

Entries were considered on the basis of talent and personality as well as looks.

The winner, a stately 18-year-old girl with a broad smile, was chosen Miss Detroit earlier this week. She will represent Michigan at the Miss America contest at Atlantic City.

Search Of Stomach Illegal, Says Judge

Los Angeles, Sept. 2 (P)—It's illegal to search a man's stomach for evidence, a federal judge has ruled.

After giving the opinion that such a procedure is "trial by ordeal," Judge Jacob Weinberger yesterday dismissed narcotics charges brought against Andrew Willis, whose stomach was searched.

Willis, 42-year-old laborer, was arrested June 26 by federal narcotics agents. He was taken to a hospital, strapped to a bed and a stomach pump was applied. Officers said they recovered two capsules of heroin.

Redbirds Roost Pretty Now In National Race

(By The Associated Press)

The Redbirds are roosting pretty today.

Eddie Dyer's St. Louis Cardinals never were better off than they are right now. Not only are they leading the Brooklyn Dodgers by two full games, but the remaining schedule is all in their favor.

The Cards have 27 games left to play, and 18 of them are at home. On the other hand, the second place Brooks must play 17 of their remaining 27 games on foreign fields.

Furthermore, 13 of the Cards' games are against the seventh and eighth place Cincinnati and Chicago Cubs. They've already won 21 out of 31 from these basement bargains.

The Brooks have 13 to play with the third and fourth place Boston and New York teams. They've played under 500 ball against these first divisioners, winning 15 and losing 16 to the Giants and Braves.

In the American league, it is likely the seven games between the league leading New York Yankees and runnerup Boston Red Sox will settle the issue. The Red Sox trail the Yankees by three games. Their chances are not bright by any means, but they're not as dark as those of the Dodgers.

Boston plays 14 of its remaining 25 games at home, but the Yankees play 23 of their 29 games at friendly Yankee Stadium.

Both runnersup lost ground yesterday. The Dodgers got off on the right foot, outscoring Cincinnati, 11-8, in the afternoon portion of a day-night doubleheader (two admissions, if you please). The Reds bounced back, however, to upset the Brooks, 4-3, in the 10-inning nightcap. At the same time, the Cards were knocking off the Phillies in Philadelphia to pick up half a length on the Brooks. Howie Pollet spun a five-hitter for his 17th victory.

The Yankees came through with their patented "squeaker", a wobbly 4-3 victory over the Browns in St. Louis. Tommy Byrne picked up his 12th victory but needed help from Ace Fireman Joe Page in the ninth.

The Cleveland Indians, baseball marathon champs, won another overtime tussle, edging out the Philadelphia Athletics, 2-1, in 11 innings. It was the Indians' 17th straight overtime victory and their 18th in 19 extra-inning games.

Despite Ralph Kiner's grand slam homer for Pittsburgh, the New York Giants defeated the Pirates, 9-5, on round trippers by Hank Thompson, Bobby Thomson and Billy Rigney. The Giants moved into fourth place, a half game over the Phils.

Serenade To September ... Or, That Old, Sad Song

Let's be honest, kids, let's face it. Summer hasn't been so hot.

Fishing, swimming, boating, loafing. Picnics, baseball—all that rot.

Let's forget that dreary August. Meet the joys of gay September.

Here's the month we start to live in. It's the start of school. Remember?

Sharpen up those brains and pencils. Wait with joy the teacher's bidding.

Give three cheers for ... well, for ... Aw. Who in heck do we think we're kidding?
